Section III Summoning of General Meetings of Shareholders

Article 46

Independent directors shall be entitled to propose the convening of any extraordinary general meeting of shareholders to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with provisions of laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association, furnish a written reply stating its agreement or disagreement to the convening of such extraordinary general meeting within ten days following receipt of such proposal from the independent director.

In the event that the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the notice of such general meeting shall be issued within five days following the adoption of the relevant board resolution. In the event that the Board of Directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting, reasons for such disagreement shall be given by way of a public announcement.

Article 47

The Board of Supervisors shall be entitled to propose the convening of any extraordinary general meeting of shareholders to the Board of Directors, provided that such proposal shall be made in writing to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with provisions of applicable laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association, furnish a written reply stating its agreement or disagreement to the convening of such extraordinary general meeting within ten days following receipt of such proposal of the same.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of such general meeting shall be issued within five days following the passing of the resolution thereof by the Board of Directors. Any change to the original proposal that is made in the notice shall not be valid unless with a prior consent of the Board of Supervisors.

If the Board of Directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting or fails to furnish a reply within ten days following receipt of such proposal, the Board of Directors shall be deemed as incapable of performing or failing to perform the duty of convening general meetings, in which case the Board of Supervisors may convene and preside over such meeting on an unilateral basis.

Article 48

Shareholders alone or in aggregate holding 10% or more of the Company's shares shall be entitled to request the Board of Directors to convene any extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, provided that such request shall be made in writing to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with provisions of applicable laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association, furnish a written reply stating its agreement or disagreement to the convening of such extraordinary general meeting within ten days following receipt of such request of the same.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of such general meeting shall be issued within five days following the passing of the resolution thereof by the Board of Directors. meeting.

If the Board of Directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting or fails to furnish a reply within ten days following receipt of such request, the shareholders alone or in aggregate holding 10% or more of the Company's shares shall be entitled to propose the convening of such extraordinary general meeting of shareholders to the Board of Supervisors, provided that such proposal shall be made in writing to the Board of Supervisors.

If the Board of Supervisors agrees to convene such extraordinary general meeting, a notice of such general meeting shall be issued within five days following receipt of the proposal. Any change to the original proposal that is made in the notice shall not be valid unless with a prior consent of the shareholders requesting the convening of such general meeting.

If the Board of Supervisors fails to issue a notice of such general meeting within the specified time limit, the Board of Supervisors shall be deemed as failing to convene and preside over such general meeting, and shareholders alone or in aggregate holding 10% or more of the Company's shares for ninety consecutive days or more shall be entitled to convene and preside over such meeting on an unilateral basis.

Article 49

If the Board of Supervisors or the shareholders determine to convene a general meeting of shareholders on their own, they shall give a written notice thereof to the Board of Directors and file the same with the local CSRC office at the place where the Company is located and the stock exchange for records. The shareholding proportion of the convening shareholders shall not be lower than 10% prior to the announcement of the resolutions of the general meeting.

The convening shareholder shall submit relevant documentary evidence to the local CSRC office at the place where the Company is located and the stock exchange upon the issuance of the notice of the general meeting and the announcement of the resolutions of the general meeting.

Article 50

The Board of Directors and the secretary to the Board of Directors shall cooperate with respect to matters relating to any general meeting of shareholders convened by the Board of Supervisors or the shareholders at their own discretion. The Board of Directors shall provide the shareholder register as of the date of record.

Article 51

If a general meeting of shareholders is convened by the Board of Supervisors or the shareholders, all necessary expenses arising therefrom shall be borne by the Company.

Section IV Motions at and Notices of General Meetings of Shareholders

Article 52

The content of any motion proposed shall fall within the scope of power of the general meeting of shareholders, which shall have a clear subject for discussion and specific issues for resolution and shall be in compliance with applicable laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 53

Board of Supervisors and shareholder(s) alone or in aggregate holding 3% or more of the Company's shares shall have the right to propose motions to the Company.

Shareholders alone or in aggregate holding 3% or more of the Company's shares shall have the right to propose an ex tempore motion ten days prior to a general meeting by furnishing the same to the summoner in writing. The summoner shall issue a supplementary notice of the general meeting within two days following receipt of the proposed motion to make public the contents of the ex tempore motion.

Except for the circumstances specified in the preceding paragraph, the summoner shall not amend any motions already stated in the notice of a general meeting or add any new motions after the notice has been issued.

No voting or resolution shall be effected or adopted at a general meeting for motions that have not been stated in the notice of the general meeting or that do not comply with Article 52 of these Articles of Association.

Article 54

The summoner shall notify the shareholders in the form of a public announcement 20 days prior to an annual general meeting, and notify the shareholders in the form of a public announcement 15 days prior to an extraordinary general meeting.

When calculating the period, the Company shall not include the day when the meeting is held.

Article 55

A notice of any general meeting of shareholders shall include the following:

- (1) the time, place and duration of the meeting;
- (2) matters and motions submitted to the meeting for deliberation;
- (3) a clear statement that all shareholders shall have the right to attend the general meeting of shareholders in person or authorize in writing a proxy that is not necessarily a shareholder of the Company, to attend the meeting and participate in voting;
- (4) the date(s) of record for the shareholders entitled to attend the general meeting of shareholders;
and
- (5) name(s) and telephone number(s) of the contact person(s) for the meeting.

The notice of the general meeting of shareholders and any supplementary notice shall fully and completely disclose all the specific contents of all motions. If any matter to be discussed requires independent directors to express their opinions, the opinions and reasons from the independent directors shall be disclosed at the same time when the notice of the general meeting of shareholders or the supplementary notice is issued.

If the general meeting of shareholders is held online or in any other form, the notice of the general meeting of shareholders shall clearly specify the voting time and procedure for such online or other form. The starting time for the online or other form of a general meeting of shareholders shall not be earlier than 3:00 p.m. on the day before the on-site general meeting is convened or later than 9:30 a.m. on the day of the on-site general meeting, and its ending time shall not be earlier than 3:00 p.m. on the day of the on-site general meeting.

The notice of any general meeting of shareholders shall confirm the date of record. The interval between the date of record for any general meeting of shareholders and the convening date of such general meeting shall not be more than 7 working days. Once the date of record is confirmed, it shall not be changed.

Article 56

If matters relating to the election of directors and supervisors are proposed to be discussed at a general meeting of shareholders, detailed information concerning the candidates for directors and supervisors shall be fully disclosed in the notice of the shareholder's general meeting, which shall at least include the following:

- (1) personal information such as educational background, working experience and all other positions undertaken on a part-time basis;
- (2) whether or not such candidates are in connection with the Company or its controlling shareholders or persons that exercise effective control over the Company;
- (3) disclosure of their shareholdings in the Company; and
- (4) whether or not they have been subject to any punishment by the CSRC or other relevant department or to any sanction by any stock exchange.

In addition to the adoption of a cumulative voting system for election of directors and supervisors, motions relating to each of the candidates for directors and supervisors shall be proposed on an individual basis.

Article 57

Upon the issuance of the notice of a general meeting of shareholders, the general meeting shall neither be delayed nor cancelled without proper reasons. Motions listed in such notice shall not be

Section V Convening of General Meetings of Shareholders

Article 58

The Board of Directors of the Company together with other summoners of a general meeting of shareholders shall adopt necessary measures to maintain the normal order of the general meeting of shareholders. Measures shall also be adopted to stop any acts from interfering with the general meeting, creating quarrels and nuisance as well as infringing the lawful interests of the shareholders while a timely report of the same shall also be made to the relevant authority for investigation.

Article 59

All shareholder registered in the register as of the date of record and their proxies shall have the right to attend any general meeting of shareholders, and shall be entitled to exercise voting rights in accordance with applicable laws, regulations and these Articles of Association.

Shareholders may attend a general meeting of shareholders in person, or they may appoint a proxy to attend and vote at such general meeting on their behalf.

Article 60

If an individual shareholder attends a general meeting in person, such shareholder shall present his/her identity card or any other valid certificate or evidence or stock account card that can be used to substantiate his/her identity. If it attends a general meeting by proxy, such proxy shall present his/her valid identity card and the power of attorney issued by the shareholder.

With respect to a legal person shareholder, its legal representative or a proxy appointed by the legal representative shall attend the meeting. If the legal representative attends the meeting, he/she shall present his/her own identity card, valid proof of his qualification as the legal representative and documentary evidence of his/her shareholding. If it attends the meeting by proxy, such proxy shall present his/her own identity card and a written power of attorney issued in accordance with applicable law by the legal representative of the legal person shareholder.

Article 61

Any power of attorney issued by a shareholder to authorize any other person to attend any general meeting shall specify the following:

- (1) the name of the proxy;
- (2) whether or not the proxy has the right to vote;
- (3) respective instructions on voting in favor of or against or abstention from voting in respect of each item listed on the agenda of the general meeting of shareholders;
- (4) the issue date and valid term of the power of attorney; and
- (5) the signature (or seal) of the person appointing the proxy. If the proxy is a legal person shareholder, the power of attorney shall be affixed with the legal person seal.

Article 62

the absence of any specific instruction from the shareholder.

Article 63

If the power of attorney for voting is signed by a person authorized by the appointor, the power of attorney or other document of authorization for signing shall be notarized. The notarized power of attorney or other document of authorization for signing shall be deposited, together with the power of attorney appointing the voting proxy, at the place of domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified for that purpose in the notice of the general meeting.

If the appointor is a legal person, its legal representative or any person authorized by a resolution of its board of directors or other decision-making body shall attend any general meeting as the proxy of the appointor.

Article 64

The attendance register listing the attendees of any general meeting shall be prepared by the Company, in which particulars relating to the members (or organizations) attending such meeting shall be specified, including their names, ID numbers, places of domicile, numbers of shares held or numbers of voting shares, and names of the appointors (or organizations).

Article 65

The summoner(s) and the lawyer hired by the Company shall jointly verify the legitimacy of shareholders' qualifications based on the register of shareholders provided by the securities registration and clearing institution, and register the names of shareholders and numbers of voting shares they hold. The registration of the meeting shall be terminated before the chair of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting and the total number of voting shares held.

Article 66

When a general meeting of shareholders is convened, all directors, supervisors and the secretary to the Board of Directors of the Company shall attend the meeting in person while the general manager and other members of the senior management shall sit in on the meeting.

Article 67

Any general meeting of shareholders shall be chaired by the chairman of the Board of Directors. If the chairman is unable to or fails to perform his/her duties to chair a general meeting, such general meeting shall be chaired by the vice chairman, or the vice chairman nominated by more than half of the directors if there are two or more vice chairmen in the Company. If the vice chairman is unable to or fails to perform his/her duties to chair the general meeting, a director nominated by more than half of the directors shall chair such meeting.

Where a general meeting is convened by the Board of Supervisors at its own discretion, the general meeting shall be chaired by the chairman of the Board of Supervisors. In the event that the chairman of the Board of Supervisors is unable to or fails to perform his/her duties, the meeting shall be chaired by the vice chairman of the Board of Supervisors. In the event that the vice chairman of the Board of Supervisors is unable to or fails to perform his/her duties, the meeting shall be chaired by a supervisor nominated by more than half of the supervisors.

Where a general meeting is convened by shareholders at their own discretion, the meeting shall be chaired by a representative nominated by the summoner(s).

In the event that a general meeting cannot proceed as a result of a violation of the procedural rules by the chair of the meeting during the general meeting, another person may be nominated to preside over the meeting upon the approval of shareholders present at the meeting entitled to more than half of the voting rights.

Article 69

The Company shall formulate procedural rules for any general meeting of shareholders, detailing the procedures for convening of and voting at such general meeting, which shall include notification, registration, motion deliberation, voting, vote counting, announcement of voting results, adoption of resolutions, meeting minutes and signing thereof, and public announcement, and it shall specify the principles for such general meeting to authorize the Board of Directors and the specific contents of any such authorization. The procedural rules for general meetings of shareholders, attached hereto as an appendix, shall be prepared by the Board of Directors and approved at a general meeting.

Article 70

At an annual general meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors shall deliver their respective working reports for the previous year. Each of the independent directors shall also deliver their respective working report.

Article 71

Directors, supervisors and members of the senior management present at a general meeting of shareholders shall provide explanations in connection with any query or suggestion from any shareholder.

or provided for in these Articles of Association.

Article 74

The summoner(s) shall ensure that the content of the minutes shall be true, accurate and complete. The directors, supervisors, secretary to the Board of Directors, summoner(s) or representative(s) thereof, and the chair of the meeting shall sign their names on the minutes. The minutes shall, together with the register of the shareholders present at the meeting in person, powers of attorney appointing proxies, and valid documentation of voting procedures online or in any other form, be kept for a period of not less than ten (10) years.

Article 75

The summoner(s) shall ensure that a general meeting of shareholders is held on a continuous basis until the final resolution is adopted. If a general meeting is suspended or no resolution can be adopted due to any force majeure event or any other special reason, necessary measures shall be adopted so as to promptly resume the general meeting or to directly terminate the general meeting, and a public announcement relating thereto shall also be made in a timely manner.

At the same time, the summoner(s) shall make a report thereof to the local CSRC office at the place where the Company is located and the stock exchange.

Section VI Voting and Resolutions at General Meetings of Shareholders

Article 76

Resolutions at a general meeting of shareholders shall be divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Any ordinary resolution at any general meeting of shareholders shall be passed by votes representing not less than one-half of the voting rights represented by the shareholders, including proxies, that attend the meeting.

Any special resolution at any general meeting of shareholders shall be passed by votes representing not less than two-thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders, including proxies, that attend the meeting.

Article 77

The following matters shall be decided on in the form of an ordinary resolution at a general meeting of shareholders:

- (1) work reports of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors;
- (2) profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans prepared by the Board of Directors;
- (3) appointment and removal of members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors, as well as their remunerations and methods of payment;
- (4) annual budget and final accounts of the Company;
- (5) annual reports of the Company; and
- (6) matters other than those required by laws and administrative regulations or these Articles of Association to be decided on in the form of a special resolution.

The following matters shall be decided on in the form of a special resolution at a general meeting of shareholders:

- (1) an increase or reduction of the share-registered capital of the Company;
- (2) any division, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (3) any amendment to these Articles of Association;
- (4) any acquisition or disposition of any material asset, or any provision of any guarantee, by the Company within one year that is in excess of 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (5) any share incentive scheme;
- (6) any repurchase of the Company's shares as stipulated in (1) and (2) of the first paragraph of Article 22 of these Articles of Association;
- (7) any adjustment of the profit distribution adjustment policy; and
- (8) any other matter that is provided by applicable laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association or that, if resolved by way of an ordinary resolution of a general meeting, may have a material impact on the Company and is thus required to be decided on by a special resolution.

Article 79

Shareholders, including proxies, shall exercise their voting rights based on the number of voting shares they represent, and each share shall carry one vote.

If any major issue affecting the interests of minority shareholders is deliberated at a general meeting of shareholders, the votes by minority shareholders shall be counted separately. The results of the votes separately counted shall be disclosed in a timely manner.

The shares of the Company held by the Company shall have no voting rights, and these shares shall not be included in the total number of voting shares represented by those attending the general meeting of shareholders.

The Board of Directors, independent directors, shareholders holding more than 1% of voting shares, or investor protection institutions established in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, and the provisions of the CSRC may act as collectors, or request the permission of the shareholders to entrust securities companies or securities service institutions to attend the general meeting of shareholders and exercise the proposal rights and voting rights on their behalf.

Article 80

In the course of deliberating any matter relating to any connected transaction at a general meeting of shareholders, any connected shareholder shall abstain from voting. The voting rights represented by the number of shares held by such shareholder shall be excluded from the total number of valid votes. The voting result of non-connected shareholders shall be fully disclosed in the public announcement of the resolutions of the general meeting.

In deliberating any matter relating to any connected transaction, the procedure for any connected shareholder to abstain and vote shall be as follows:

(1) If a matter deliberated at a general meeting of shareholders is related to a shareholder, the shareholder shall disclose its connection to the matter to the Board of Directors of the Company before the date of the general meeting;

- (2) When a matter relating to any connected transaction is deliberated at a general meeting of shareholders, the chair of the meeting shall announce connected shareholders, and describe and explain the relationship of such connected shareholders to the matter of such connected transaction.
- (3) If the chair of the meeting announces that connected shareholders shall abstain from voting, non-connected shareholders shall deliberate and vote on matters of such connected transaction;
- (4) Any resolution concerning matters of such connected transaction shall be subject to adoption by non-connected shareholders representing more than half of the voting shares;
- (5) If, in deliberating any matter concerning any connected transaction, any connected shareholder fails to disclose his/her connected relationship or abstain from voting in accordance with the abovementioned procedure, all resolutions related to such matter shall be invalidated and a new vote shall be taken.

Article 81

On the premise of ensuring the legality and effectiveness of general meetings of shareholders, the Company shall, in various forms and by various means, provide modern information technologies such as launching an online voting platform to make it convenient for shareholders to attend general meetings of shareholders.

Article 82

Except for special circumstances such as the Company's being in a crisis, and unless approved in the form of a special resolution adopted at a general meeting of shareholders, the Company shall not enter into a contract with any person other than the directors, general manager and other members of the senior management to entrust such person with the management of all or major businesses of the

Article 83

The list of candidates for directors or supervisors shall be submitted to the general meeting of shareholders in the form of a motion for voting.

Method and Procedure for the Nomination of Directors and Supervisors

(1) Method and Procedure for the Nomination of Non-independent Directors:

Candidates for directors may be nominated by the Board of Directors, or shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 3% of the Company's shares already issued, and before the nomination, a prior consent from the nominee shall be obtained, and detailed information of the candidate shall be announced. Before the date of the general meeting, the candidate shall make a written statement that he/she agrees to accept the nomination, that the information disclosed to the public about the nominee is true and complete, and that he/she guarantees to effectively perform his/her duties as a director after he/she is elected.

(2) Method and Procedure for the Nomination of Independent Directors:

Candidates for independent directors may be nominated by the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors or shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the Company's shares already issued, and shall be subject to election at general meetings of shareholders.

Before the nomination, the nominator shall obtain a prior consent from the person nominated for an independent director, and announce detailed information of the candidate. The nominator shall have a full understanding of the nominee's profession, educational background, title, detailed working experience and all other positions undertaken on a part-time basis and shall also be responsible for providing his/her opinion(s) in connection with the qualifications and independence of such nominee acting as an independent director. The nominee shall make a public statement that there does not exist any relationship between himself/herself and the Company that may influence his/her independent and objective judgement. The Board of Directors of the Company shall disclose such content set forth above prior to the general meeting for election of independent directors.

(3) Method and Procedure for the Nomination of Supervisors:

Candidates for supervisors may be nominated by the Board of Directors or shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 3% of the Company's shares already issued. Before the nomination, the nominator shall obtain a prior consent from the person nominated for a supervisor, and announce detailed information of the candidate. Before the date of the general meeting, the candidate shall make a written statement that he/she agrees to accept the nomination, that the information disclosed to the public about the nominee is true and complete, and that he/she guarantees to effectively perform his/her duties as a supervisor after he/she is elected. If the position of a supervisor shall be assumed by an employee representative, the nomination shall be made at a meeting of employee representatives of the Company, and the supervisor shall be elected by employees in a democratic manner.

For each candidate for the position of a director or supervisor, a separate motion shall be proposed.

In particular, if a single shareholder and parties acting in concert with such shareholder own interest in 30% or more of the shares of the Company, the cumulative voting system shall be implemented during the election of directors and supervisors at a general meeting of shareholders.

The cumulative voting system referred to in the preceding paragraph means that when electing directors or supervisors at a general meeting of shareholders, each voting share shall have the same number of voting rights as that of the directors or supervisors to be elected, and that the voting rights owned by shareholders can be used all together. The Board of Directors shall explain to the shareholders the resume and basic information of the director or supervisor candidate.

Under the cumulative voting system, independent directors shall be elected in separation from other members of the Board of Directors.

Article 85

In addition to the adoption of the cumulative voting system, voting for all motions proposed to a general meeting of shareholders shall be conducted on an item-by-item basis. If different motions have been proposed for the same matter, voting related thereto shall be conducted based on the chronological order of the motions proposed. Unless a general meeting is suspended or no resolution can be adopted due to force majeure or other special reasons, no motion shall be set aside or rejected for voting at the general meeting.

Article 86

When a motion is deliberated at a general meeting of shareholders, no change shall be made thereto, or any relevant change made thereto shall be treated as a new motion which cannot be voted on at the very general meeting.

Article 87

The same right to vote can only be exercised by electing to vote at the scene, via the Internet or otherwise. If the same right to vote has been exercised more than once, the result of the first voting shall prevail.

Article 88

Voting by open ballot shall be adopted for general meetings of shareholders.

Article 89

Before voting on motions at a general meeting of shareholders, two shareholder representatives shall be elected to be responsible for counting and monitoring votes. If any matter under deliberation has a stake with any shareholder, such shareholder and his/her proxy shall not participate in the counting and monitoring of votes.

When voting on motions at a general meeting of shareholders, the lawyer(s), shareholder representatives and supervisor representatives shall be jointly responsible for counting and monitoring the votes, and shall announce the voting results on the spot, and the voting results shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

Shareholders or their proxies who vote via the Internet or through any other method shall have the right to check their voting results through the corresponding voting system.

time of voting on the Internet or in any other form. The chair of the meeting shall announce the voting status and result of each motion, and shall declare whether the motion is approved or not based on the voting result.

Prior to the official announcement of the voting results, the Company, and the relevant parties such as the persons counting and monitoring votes at the site of the general meeting of shareholders, online or in any other form, major shareholders, and the network service provider shall be responsible for keeping confidential the voting information.

Article 91

Shareholders attending a general meeting of shareholders shall express their opinion with respect to any motion proposed for resolution as in favor of, against or abstention from voting in respect of such motion, except for declarations made in accordance with the intentions of the actual holders by the securities registration and settlement institution, as the nominal holder of the shares under the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect program.

Ballot papers that are left in blank, unduly completed or illegible, or that have not been used, shall be treated in the way that the voters have waived their right to vote and the voting results corresponding to the shares in their possession shall be treated as “abstention from voting”.

Article 92

In the event that the chair of the meeting has any doubt as to the results of any motion submitted for voting, he/she may count the votes. In the event that that the chair of the meeting fails to count the votes and any shareholder or proxy objects to the results announced by the chair of the meeting, such shareholder or proxy shall be entitled to request the counting of the votes immediately after the

Article 93

A public announcement in respect of the resolutions adopted at a general meeting of shareholders shall be made in a timely manner, which shall specify the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of voting shares in their possession and the proportion of the number of voting shares represented by them out of the total number of the shares of the Company, method of voting, voting result for each motion and particulars of each resolution adopted.

Article 94

If a motion is not adopted, or if a resolution adopted at the previous general meeting of shareholders is changed by the then general meeting, a special reminder in connection therewith shall be contained in the public announcement of the resolutions adopted at the general meeting.

Article 95

If a motion relating to election of a director or supervisor is adopted at a general meeting of shareholders, the term of office for such newly elected director or supervisor shall be commenced from the date of adoption of the resolution at the general meeting.

Article 96

If a motion in respect of the distribution of cash or bonus shares, or in connection with capital increase by conversion from capital reserves, is adopted at a general meeting of shareholders, the Company shall implement a specific scheme relating thereto within 2 months following the conclusion of the general meeting.

Section I Financial Accounting System

Article 153

The Company shall prepare the financial accounting system based on the laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of relevant departments.

Article 154

The Company shall submit the annual financial accounting report to the CSRC and the stock exchange within 4 months from the end of each accounting year, submit the semi-annual financial accounting report to the local office of the CSRC and the stock exchange within 2 months from the end of the first 6 months of each accounting year, and submit the quarterly financial accounting report to the local office of the CSRC and the stock exchange within one month from the end of the first 3 months and the first 9 months of each accounting year respectively.

The above-mentioned financial accounting report shall be prepared based on the provisions of relevant laws, administrative regulations and departmental rules.

Article 155

Except for the statutory accounting books, the Company shall not set up other accounting books. The Company asset shall not be deposited into any individual's account.

Article 156

In distributing its after-tax profit of the current year, the Company shall allocate 10% of the after-tax profit to the statutory common reserve fund of the Company. Such allocation maybe waived once the accumulative amount of the statutory common reserve fund of the Company exceeds 50% or more of the Company's registered capital.

If the statutory common reserve fund of the Company is not sufficient to cover the loss of the previous year, the profit of the current year shall be used to cover such loss before allocation is made to the statutory common reserve fund according to the provision of the preceding article.

After the allocation to the statutory common reserve fund is made from the after-tax profit by the Company, any amount can be allocated into the statutory common reserve fund from the after-tax profit upon the resolution of the shareholders meeting.

The remaining after-tax profit shall be distributed to the shareholders in proportion to their shares after the Company has covered the loss and drawn the statutory common reserve fund, unless otherwise stipulated in these Articles of Association.

If, in violation of the provision of the preceding article, the profit is distributed to the shareholders at the shareholders meeting before the Company covers the loss and makes allocation to the statutory common reserve fund, the shareholders shall return such distributed profit to the Company.

The shares of the Company held by the Company shall not be involved in the profit distribution.

Article 157

The statutory common reserve fund of the Company is used to cover the Company's losses, enlarge the Company's production and operation, or increase the Company capital. However, the capital reserve shall not be used to cover the Company's loss.

When the statutory common reserve fund is converted into capitals, the remaining common reserve fund shall not be less than 25% of the Company's registered capital before such conversion.

Article 158

After the shareholders meeting of the Company makes resolution on the profit distribution, the Board of Directors of the Company must complete the distribution of dividends (or shares) within 2 months after the shareholders meeting.

Article 159

The profit distribution system of the Company is as follows:

(1) Principle of dividend distribution: The Company shall conduct continuous and stable profit distribution system, which shall not only focus on the reasonable return on the investors but also pay attention to the sustainable development of the Company. The profit distribution shall not exceed the scope of accumulated distributable profits or damage the Company's ability in continuous operation.

(2) Way of profit distribution: Subject to the profit distribution system, the Company can distribute the dividend in the way of cash, stock or the combination of cash and stock; cash bonus takes precedence over the stock and dividend bonus.

(3) Decision mechanism and procedure of profit distribution: The profit distribution scheme of the Company shall be formulated by the Board of Directors based on the Company's equity scale, profitability, investment arrangement, cash flow, shareholder return plan, etc. In formulating the annual profit distribution scheme or interim profit distribution scheme, the Board of Directors shall carefully study and demonstrate the opportunity, condition and minimum ratio, adjustment condition, decision procedure requirement and other factors of the Company's cash bonus. Independent directors shall have definite opinions on the profit distribution scheme. Independent directors can seek for opinions from minority shareholders, put forward a proposal for bonus distribution and then directly submit it to the Board of Directors for consideration.

If the Board of Directors of the Company decides not to distribute the profit or not to include cash into the profit distribution scheme, it shall offer corresponding reason and disclose it in the regular report, on which the independent directors of the Company shall make comments.

The profit distribution scheme shall be submitted to the shareholders meeting for review and approval by the Board of Directors after its own review and approval. Vote on the profit distribution scheme shall be conducted at the shareholders meeting according to laws and regulations. Before the review on the specific scheme of cash bonus by the shareholders meeting, the Company shall communicate with shareholders, especially the minority shareholders, in various ways, to fully listen to their opinions and demands and timely answer the questions they concern.

If the profit distribution is conducted in the form of stock or dividend, it shall embody the corporate growth, the dilution of the net asset value per share, and other real and reasonable factors. If the Company conducts profit distribution in the form of stock, dividend, or the combination of cash with stock and dividend, it shall be reviewed and approved by the shareholders meeting of the Company in a special way of resolution.

(4) Condition, proportion and intervals of cash bonus: All the following requirements must be met with for the Company's implementation of the cash bonus: (a) the distributable profit of the Company for the year (i.e., the remaining after-tax profit after the Company has covered the loss and drawn the common reserve fund) is positive; (b) the audit authority has issued the standard audit report on the Company's annual financial report of the year, with no reservation; (c) the Company has no major foreign investment plan (except for fundraising projects) in the next 12 months; the major investment plan refers to: the accumulative expenditure of the Company in the next 12 months on overseas investment, asset acquisition, or equipment purchase reaches or surpasses 50% of the Company's net assets based on the last audit, and exceeds RMB 500 million.

Subject to the above requirements for cash bonus, the Board of Directors of the Company should comprehensively consider the industrial feature, the Company's development stage, operation mode, profitability and whether there is major capital expenditure arrangement, etc., and distinguish the following situations to put forward differentiated cash bonus policy based on the procedures stipulated in these Articles of Association: (a) if the Company is in the matured development stage and has no major capital expenditure arrangement, the proportion of cash bonus in this profit distribution shall be at least 80%; (b) if the Company is in the matured development stage and has major capital expenditure arrangement, the proportion of cash bonus in this profit distribution shall be at least 40%; (c) if the Company is in the growth stage and has major capital expenditure arrangement, the proportion of cash bonus in this profit distribution shall be at least 20%; (d) if the development stage of the Company is indistinguishable and the Company has major capital expenditure arrangement, it can be handled in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

If the shareholder illegally appropriates the Company's capital, the Company shall deduct the bonus distributed to this shareholder to repay the capitals appropriated by him/her.

The profit distributed by the Company in the form of cash each year shall not be less than 10% of the distributable profit achieved in the current year; the accumulative profit distributed in the form of cash over the past three years shall not be less than 30% of average annual distributable profit achieved over the last three years.

In case of having suitable conditions, the Board of Directors of the Company can suggest interim
